Counting Pennies

1. ODA to end violence against children is less than 0.6% of global ODA (less than US$5.1 billion out of US$744 billion)

2. In the 107 recipient countries of ODA for ending violence against children, the average investment per child is around US$66.5 a year

3. Global ODA investment in ending violence against children
   - Total ODA estimated to have been spent to address violence against children is less than US$5.1 billion versus total ODA disbursed in 2015 of US$74 billion
   - Approximately US$0.8 billion related to ending violence against children

4. Number of children experiencing violence each year is 1 billion
   - Global ODA spending on ending violence against children is less than US$5.1 billion
   - ECONOMIC COST of violence against children up to US$7 trillion

5. ODA invested in ending violence against children compared with ODA invested in other sectors
   - ODA to end violence against children is less than 0.6% of global ODA (less than US$5.1 billion out of US$17.4 billion)
   - In the 107 recipient countries of ODA for ending violence against children, the average investment per child is around US$66.5 a year

6. Regional distribution of ODA + top recipient countries
   - Regional distribution of total spending to end violence against children

7. League tables of donors
   - Largest 10 donors of ODA to end violence against children
   - Largest donors of ODA to end violence against children as a proportion of their ODA disbursements

Source: Development Initiatives, based on OECD Development Assistance Committee. All data for 2015.